

New Employee Orientation promotes an awareness of employee expectations, reviews the HHS Mission, Vision and Values and introduces critical policies and procedures, such as confidentiality and our Values-Based Code of Conduct. This orientation overviews information on safety topics, ranging from patient safety to occupational safety, infection control and emergency preparedness.

