

Colon cancer and rectal cancer care plan

PICC insert date: _____

- Chemotherapy every 2 weeks
- Blood work every 2 weeks while on chemotherapy
- Chemotherapy for 6 months for a total of 12 treatments

| Month: | | Month: | | Month: | | Month: | | Month: | | Month: | |
|------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|
| Day | Day | Day | Day | Day | Day | Day | Day | Day | Day | Day | Day |
| Chemo | Chemo | Chemo | Chemo | Chemo | Chemo | Chemo | Chemo | Chemo | Chemo | Chemo | Chemo |
| Blood work | Blood work | Blood work | Blood work | Blood work | Blood work | Blood work | Blood work | Blood work | Blood work | Blood work | Blood Work |

PICC removal date _____

- 4 to 6 weeks after chemotherapy: CT scan, date _____
- Referred to GI Transition Clinic for visit, date _____
- Care returns to family doctor, date _____
- Follow-up instructions provided. There is a lot to learn. Before leaving each appointment we want to make sure we have answered your questions and you know what to do when you go home. Please let us know if the information is clear and understandable.

Your Health Care Team, JCC