

Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation Clinician Teacher in the Musculoskeletal Rehabilitation Program

McMaster University and Hamilton Health Sciences is inviting applications for a clinician teacher in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation (PM&R) to join the Musculoskeletal Rehabilitation Team at the Juravinski Hospital. This position is best suited for those who have experience in bone, joint, muscle and cardiovascular rehabilitation. The successful candidate will join a group of highly skilled and motivated physicians and interprofessional team to supervise inpatient and outpatient care of patients after injury or illness.

The inpatient responsibilities are shared with PM&R physicians with support of a hospitalist and an interprofessional team with access to a wide range of other specialties at the Juravinski Hospital and Cancer Centre. There is an integrated system of acute care consultation, 22 inpatient rehabilitation beds and wellness programs through association with the local YMCA.

McMaster University and Hamilton Health Sciences culture promotes physician leadership and local decision making which affords us the distinction of outstanding physician satisfaction and patient satisfaction scores. We are interested in generating new knowledge and provide support for development of guidelines and research related to the effects of illness or injury and its treatment on function and quality of life.

The opportunity to perform electrodiagnosis is available.

The successful candidate will be part of the Department of PM&R at Hamilton Health Sciences and the Division of PM&R in the Department of Medicine at McMaster University and eligible for a part-time or full-time faculty appointment within the Division of PM&R in the Department of Medicine at McMaster University. Rank will be commensurate with experience and expected academic contributions. The successful candidate will be expected to contribute to the clinical, academic, and research missions of Hamilton Health Sciences and the Division of PM&R, supporting teaching of residents, fellows and medical students from the McMaster DeGroot School of Medicine.

Start date: January 2024.
